SUBJECT:

Staffing of Human Relations and Management Course

1. In our meeting of 20 May, we agreed that the Office of Training and Education (OTE) and the Office of Equal Employment Opportunity (OEEO) should be involved in a joint effort to plan, design, conduct and staff the Human Relations and Management (HRM) course. This memorandum sets forth my views on the staffing of future HRM courses. It also addresses the utilization of OEEO personnel detailed to OTE.

be detailed administratively in the Management School, OTE. I further propose that of this Office, who has served very effectively as instructor/trainer in all runnings of HRM, be also detailed to the Management School as an additional instructor. Both will be carried on the OEEO staffing complement. OEEO will prepare rotational assignment agreements for both individuals. These actions will facilitate our efforts in the area of equal opportunity and human relations training	2. In order for the OEEO to fulfill its obligation to contribute

4. With respect to OTE's contribution to the staffing of future runnings of HRM courses, I urgently request you designate as soon as possible the Management School instructors who will be involved in this training effort. Prompt designation of all HRM trainers will permit early collaboration between our offices to plan and design an optional training package for HRM courses starting in September.
